

Maryland State Board of Elections

Request to Provide Supplemental Language Assistance

1. LBE: Montgomery County Board of Elections

a. When did your Board approve plans and funding, if applicable, for supplemental assistance?

On February 2, 2026, the Montgomery County Board of Elections approved the plan and authorized the Election Director to seek the State Board of Elections' approval to provide language assistance, within the county's capacity and means, in other languages.

2. Point of Contact: Boris Brajkovic, Election Director for Montgomery County Board of Elections

3. Are you providing additional services in already required languages or providing already required services in additional languages, or both?:

☒ Service in an additional language

i. Which language?: Montgomery County Board of Elections seeks approval from the State Board of Elections to translate its Voter Guide (attached) and make it available on its website in French and Korean languages for the 2026 Gubernatorial election cycle.

☐ Services beyond the scope of requirements in Maryland law

ii. What service(s)?: _____

4. Describe the population you seek to serve:

Montgomery County is recognized as the most diverse county in the state, with four of its local jurisdictions ranking among the top ten most ethnically diverse jurisdictions in the nation. According to census data, there are 3,945 residents who speak Korean language and 3,483 residents who speak French language and have limited proficiency in English language.

5. Describe or provide indicators of the need you seek to meet:

The census data shows that there are 3,945 Korean-speaking and 3,483 French-speaking citizens with limited English language proficiency.

6. What assistance is needed from the State Board, if any, to provide assistance?:

No assistance is required from the State Board of Elections to provide planned assistance to Montgomery County citizens who speak Korean and French languages and have limited English language proficiency.

7. What other information should the State Board consider when it reviews this application?:

The Montgomery County Government, through its Office of Community Partnerships, offers complimentary translation services for all county agencies. Consequently, the translation of the Voter Guide (attached to this request) will incur no additional cost to the Montgomery County Board of Elections. Moreover, this planned effort will enhance our ongoing outreach activities to various linguistic groups within the county.

Please attach examples of any written materials that are being proposed, as well as the English translation. The English version of the Montgomery County Voter Guide is provided together with this request.
